

Premiering Tuesday, January 8th,
SENIOR CONNECTIONS will be introduced to the Midlands!

A new original program airing at 1:30pm each Tuesday afternoon, Senior Connections will address a host of issues facing not only seniors but also their children and those persons in the community that provide assistance to seniors. Hosted by Janet Haladay and Margie Toms, two community veterans in the field of senior living and healthcare, show topics will range from funding long-term assisted living to recent trends in the industry.

A list of topics includes:

1. The SC Office on Aging and the services it provides
2. Long-term care insurance and what you need to know
3. Senior dating – a new adventure
4. Care-giving options and the need for support
5. Personal levels of homecare and options available
